

Sellfy Music License

1. Sellfy Music License is a “multi-use” license, which means that you can use the Item in a personal or commercial project for yourself or a client, to create more than one commercial recording or broadcast. The seller will not receive a royalty from the sale of records or downloads. You must however give full credit to the seller (artist and/or producer name) on all commercial recordings. The seller still owns the beat/song and the seller is able to resell them to any other party.
2. Here’s what the Sellfy Music License allows for each Item purchased as part of Sellfy Bundle:
 - Personal or commercial use.
 - Record, alter, mix the beat/song in any shape, way, or form.
 - Can be used in multiple commercial projects.
 - For yourself or on behalf of a client.
 - Your recording can be distributed up to 25,000 copies at your own price.
3. Here’s what Sellfy Music License doesn’t allow you to do with the Item purchased as part of Sellfy Bundle:
 - Cannot be sublicensed, resold, shared, transferred, included as part of a giveaway, or otherwise redistributed on its own or with superficial modifications (even for free).
 - TV/Movie use (contact seller to discuss the terms).
4. The author of the Item retains ownership of the Item but grants you the license on these terms. This license is between the creator of the Item and you. Sellfy UAB and Sellfy SIA are not a party to this license or the one giving you the license.
5. If you’re still unclear about what is or isn’t allowed under the Sellfy Extended License, please contact Sellfy support team at support@sellfy.com
